

A word from our CEO

We are delighted to report that we have won two awards at the Fleet Transport awards held near Dublin this week.

We were awarded the Safety Award which demonstrates our continued commitment to safety for all our employees; as a category we then went forward for the overall award on the night which we won for the second time in three years.

In a post event press conference Andrew Reynolds, CEO Reynolds Logistics paid tribute to his staff, "we have a great group of employees and they are the ones that made this award possible, this business is about people not hardware - so winning this award is great for them. To win the award a second time shows that the staff continue to improve all areas of our operations".

Reynolds Logistics wins Irish Haulier of the Year for the second time

Dublin based petro-chemical distribution company Reynolds Logistics was named Irish Haulier of the Year 2010 at the third annual Fleet Transport Awards Gala Dinner held at the Marriott Johnstown House Hotel, Enfield, County Meath this week. It is the second occasion that Reynolds Logistics has won this highly sought after accolade.

Reynolds Logistics is a family business run by Andrew Reynolds, headquartered in Dublin they employ 260 people and run 150 trucks, mostly Mercedes. Reynolds Logistics principle activity is the distribution petroleum products in Ireland and UK. Customers include Topaz, TOP, Maxol, Irish Tar, BP, and Shell. In May Reynolds Logistics were awarded 2nd place in the European Transport Company of the Year 2009. Reynolds Logistics will now go forward to once again represent Ireland in the 2011 European Transport Company of the Year Award.

A Quote from our Chairman

Joe Reynolds, Chairman, Reynolds Logistics, expressed his delight on winning the main award for the second time, especially coming through from winning the Safety category. "Safety is so important to our business - in fact it is key to everything we do. Everyone of our 260 employees contributed to this success. When we last won this award I was managing the company for the last two years my son Andrew has assumed this role therefore it particularly satisfying from our family's perspective".

Reynolds Logistics Ltd

Team-cv

Reynolds Fleet Services Ltd

Lubefreight Ltd